CONTINGENT BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION FORM (01/29)

This contingent beneficiary designation form will be used in conjunction with my application for pension benefits in which I already designated a primary beneficiary for survivor's benefits under the Joint and Survivor Annuity or the 60 Month Post-Retirement Option.

Please note that if you designate your spouse as your beneficiary and you subsequently get divorced, the beneficiary designation shall not be valid (except for the Joint and Survivor Annuity or in accordance with a Qualified Domestic Relations Order.) You will need to file a new beneficiary designation election naming (or a Qualified Domestic Relations Order must name) your former spouse as the beneficiary after the divorce.

Contingent Beneficiary Information: Your contingent beneficiary will only receive benefits if your primary beneficiary or beneficiaries dies before all of the survivor benefit payments have been made or is revoked due to subsequent divorce. If you name more than one contingent beneficiary, they will receive equal shares of any benefits payable. Please list your contingent beneficiary (or beneficiaries) below.

Please Note: If your primary beneficiary dies and no contingent beneficiary is named or the contingent beneficiary dies or cannot be reasonably located, benefits will be paid, in equal shares, to the first of the following:

- A current spouse who is not considered a qualified spouse, or if none
- · Your children, or if none
- · Your parents, or if none
- · Your brothers and sisters.
